7 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

8 Susan Finucan,
9 Plaintiff,
10 vs.
11 City of Las Vegas, et al.,
12 Defendants.

Case No. 2:21-cv-0198-CDS-DJA

14 Stipulation and Order to Extend Pretrial Order Deadline

15 (Fourth Request)

17 Plaintiff Finucan and Defendants City of Las Vegas and Scott Adams stipulate to a 14-day
18 extension, up to and including May 1, 2023 to submit the Pretrial Order. Currently, the Pretrial
19 Order is due April 17, 2023. [ECF No. 24] Per LR IA6-1, this is the fourth request for an extension
20 to file the pretrial order. Defendants requested this extension and Plaintiff agreed to the request.

21 Good cause is shown for the request. Plaintiff produced a substantive draft Pretrial Order 22 for Defendants to review and to include their proposed information. Defendants have been 23 diligently adding this information and expect to return the draft to Plaintiff for further review on 24 or before April 17. However, this leaves scant time for Plaintiff to contemplate the information 25 added by Defendants. Furthermore – and as contemplated by the rules – this process of preparing 26 the Pretrial Order has identified possible facts and legal issues that may be possible to resolve by 27 stipulation. The parties have engaged in good faith discussion regarding these matters and have

1 agreed to continue these efforts in an attempt to narrow the issues for trial. Thus, additional time
2 is necessary to prudently allow the parties to finalize the Pretrial Order as well as to appropriately
3 negotiate matters that may limit trial's scope. Such narrowing will conserve judicial and party 4 resources and will act in furtherance of the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of this 5 lawsuit.

6 Accordingly, the parties stipulate to a 14-day extension to May 1, 2023 to submit the 7 Pretrial Order.

8 This request is respectfully sought in good faith and is not sought for any improper purpose
9 or other dilatory motive or reason of delay. No party is prejudiced by the requested extension.

10 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
